

Germany

Willkommen!

Christmas market

Throughout Germany the old and the new co-exist in harmony. Although one of the world's leading industrial nations, picture-postcard Germany is still much in evidence – glass façades of modern buildings are likely to reflect the ornate towers of a mediaeval cathedral; ancient castles overlook not only the Rhine River but high-speed intercity train lines and highways.

Covering over 357,000-square kilometres, Germany is one of the largest European countries with landscapes varying from the Alps in the south to the beaches of the Baltic and North Seas, from the industrial heartland in the west to the open vistas of the European plain in the east. Between these lie vibrant cities with fabulous shopping and pulsating nightlife, enchanting mediaeval villages, vast tracts of quiet countryside reflecting centuries of careful husbandry, steep-sided river valleys, deep, quiet forests and castles, palaces and abbeys seemingly untouched by time.

The people of Germany have a liking for the good things, standards that are reflected in every aspect of life. Hotels are excellent, public transport is clean and reliable, entertainment is exciting and varied and food universally good.

Pavement cafés (open-fronted in the summer and glassed-in during the winter), smart bistros, beer-halls and wine taverns may be found throughout the country, whilst top-class restaurants serve food from around the world.

As you might expect from a land of such diversity, there are holidays to suit just about everybody. You can join in the fun at a beergarden or in a wine cellar; take a cruise on the Rhine or Danube; investigate the wealth of museums and art galleries; take to the waters at Baden-Baden; ski in the Alps or cycle along tow-paths; marvel at the magnificence of Neuschwanstein fairy-tale castle or dance the night away in a lively nightclub.

Explore Berlin, once again the capital of a united Germany, where the contrast between east and west is still most obviously seen; discover Frankfurt, one of Europe's major financial and shopping centres; venture westwards to Düsseldorf, nicknamed the Paris of Germany, with its flair for fashion and style and visit nearby Cologne with its cathedral, perhaps the most magnificent Gothic church in Christendom. You can also head north, towards the great seaport of Hamburg or south to Munich, the heart of Bavaria, with its outstanding museums and art galleries, strong tradition of music and of course, the exuberant Oktoberfest.

Sightseeing

Beautiful monuments and castles, spectacular scenery, excellent museums in all major cities; Neuschwanstein Castle; Düsseldorf’s Rhine promenade and Old Town and Cologne Cathedral; Brandenburg Gate and Berlin Wall Museum.

Accommodation

Traditional, luxury hotels and excellent modern properties.

Family activities

Europa Park – just a two-hour drive from Frankfurt, Movie Park Germany – only 40 kilometres from Düsseldorf; cruising on the Rhine and Danube Rivers.

Shopping

What you can buy – High street fashion, designer goods, china and tableware, cuckoo clocks and hand-made Christmas decorations. Where you can buy – Maximilianstrasse in Munich, Königsallee, Old Town in Düsseldorf, Goethestrasse in Frankfurt, Jungfernstieg and Moenckebergstrasse in Hamburg, as well as Kurfürstendamm and Potsdamer Platz in Berlin.

Entertainment

Art galleries, opera, ballet, theatres, fashionable street cafés, traditional German pubs, gourmet restaurants, nightclubs, casinos and dinner cruises.

Oktoberfest

Sports and leisure

Cycling, horse riding, trekking, golfing and canoeing. There are numerous spa towns and retreats, including the famed Baden-Baden, Bad Reichenhall and the sporting town of Garmisch-Partenkirchen.

Events

Hamburger DOM Fun fair (April and July – August); Oktoberfest, Munich (September – October); German Unification Day (03 October); Christmas Markets in Berlin, Nuremberg, Munich, Düsseldorf and many other cities (December); Carnival in Düsseldorf and Cologne (February).

Exploring by road

The excellent network of highways makes travelling by car quick and easy.

Train Journeys

An elegant travel experience

Railway enthusiasts maintain that the train is by far the most civilised form of transport yet invented. Travelling aboard one of Europe's modern expresses at speeds of up to 300 kph – you may well find yourself in agreement with them.

Across the continent's extensive rail network, fast and comfortable trains not only whisk you from city centre to city centre but can also take you to country towns and remote villages. En route you often travel through areas inaccessible by other means of transport, offering you a host of new perspectives of the landscape. And those with an interest in engineering will marvel at the viaducts, tunnels, cuttings and embankments built by long-forgotten 19th century workers, whilst enthusiasts of architecture will admire the splendid termini of major cities and the vernacular styles of homely rural stations.

Whilst you may want to select from one of our three preset itineraries, these are merely suggestions designed to give you a flavour of what is possible. All travel arrangements, itineraries and accommodation options can be tailor-made to suit your individual preferences, giving you total freedom to explore places of your own choice and at your own pace. From mountains to moorlands, sophisticated cities to seaside resorts, Europe is yours by train.

Germany as-you-please

City options include Berlin, Cologne, Dresden, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Munich, Nuremberg and Stuttgart. The arrangements include international flights, second class rail travel throughout Germany, hotel accommodation including breakfast and city excursions. Transfers between stations and hotels can be added if required. Tailor-made itineraries need a minimum duration of four nights' accommodation and should cover at least two cities.

German Experience

9 days/8 nights • Train journey

Hamburg • Berlin • Frankfurt • Munich

We take you from the ancient Hanseatic city of Hamburg across the north German Plain to the country's capital, Berlin, before heading south-west to Frankfurt, an important banking, commercial and cultural hub and then south-east to Munich, Bavaria's flamboyant, easy going capital.

Day 1: Hamburg

Arrive in Hamburg.

Day 2: Hamburg

Germany's second largest and, some say, most beautiful city has been an important port for over a thousand years and today offers visitors a wealth of history, outstanding architecture and jubilant nightlife. We include a short harbour cruise. Overnight in Hamburg.

Marienplatz, Munich

Day 3: Hamburg – Berlin (approximately 1 hour 30 minutes)

The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in Berlin.

Day 4: Berlin

This beautiful, thriving metropolis has a rich history and offers a vast range of attractions along with a lively entertainment scene. Overnight in Berlin.

Day 5: Berlin – Frankfurt (approximately 3 hours 30 minutes)

Once again embark on the train to Frankfurt. The spectacular high-rise skyline has given the city its nickname 'Mainhattan', but amidst the modern office blocks glimpses of its mediaeval roots can still be seen in window-boxed houses, cobbled alleyways, traditional taverns and quaint squares. Overnight in Frankfurt.

Day 6: Frankfurt – Munich (approximately 3 hours)

Depart to Munich. The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in Munich.

Days 7 – 9: Munich

Explore this exciting city, which happily combines the high culture of opera, art and museums with the simpler pleasures of oompah bands and lively beers halls. Overnight in Munich.

Please note: Durations are based on approximate timings, which may vary over weekdays and weekends, the number of stops and climate conditions.

Munich • Salzburg • Vienna

Overshadowed for most of its length by the mighty Alps, this enthralling journey will introduce you to fascinating cities, some of Europe's finest architecture and magnificent mountain panoramas.

Day 1: Munich

Arrive in Munich.

Day 2: Munich

Bavaria's charming capital offers an intriguing blend of culture, art and music. Mediaeval, Baroque and Rococo buildings cluster around the marketplace in the Marienplatz; orchestras, theatres, museums and art galleries vie for attention; and traditional crafts continue to flourish. Overnight in Munich.

Day 3: Munich - Salzburg (approximately 2 hours)

Depart by train to Salzburg. The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in Salzburg.

Day 4: Salzburg

Attractively located in the foothills of the Alps, the birthplace of Mozart combines lovely architecture with a year-round programme of cultural events – from orchestral to rock concerts, operas to musicals and folk dancing to street festivals. Overnight in Salzburg.

Day 5: Salzburg – Vienna (approximately 3 hours 15 minutes)

Depart on your train journey to Vienna. The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in Vienna.

Days 6 – 7: Vienna

Austria's imperial past is recalled in the city's magnificent palaces, stately mansions and wide boulevards. Vienna is one of the world's greatest cultural centres – home of composers, ensembles, orchestras and choirs, and with more than 200 museums and galleries displaying priceless works of art. Viennese cuisine can be enjoyed in hundreds of restaurants; the city's coffee houses are renowned for their cakes and pastries; and Heuriger, wine taverns, unite music, food and wine in a uniquely Viennese blend. Overnight in Vienna.

Please note: Durations are based on approximate timings, which may vary over weekdays and weekends, the number of stops and climate conditions.

Capitals of Europe

10 days/9 nights • Train journey

Munich • Paris • Amsterdam • London

From Bavaria, in the south of Germany, your journey takes you through a range of landscapes to Paris, France's enchanting capital, before crossing the north European plain to Amsterdam, one of the continent's most exciting cities, and then through the Channel Tunnel to London, for some of Europe's finest shopping, dining and entertainment opportunities.

Day 1: Munich

Arrive in Munich.

Day 2: Munich

Apart from the many attractions of the city itself, Munich is the gateway to Alpine resorts, the fairy tale castles of King Ludwig and the mediaeval towns of Augsburg and Rothenburg. Overnight in Munich.

Day 3: Munich - Paris (approximately 6 hours 30 minutes)

Embark on your train journey across the border to Paris. The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in Paris.

Day 4: Paris

The city's essential character combining high living and the avant-garde, haute cuisine and haute couture has been preserved in a way few other places have achieved. Paris is still the most glamorous city in Europe. Overnight in Paris.

Day 5: Paris – Amsterdam (approximately 5 hours)

Your next destination awaits you. Depart on the train heading for Amsterdam. The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in Amsterdam.

Day 6: Amsterdam

Amsterdam remains one of Europe's most attractive cities, where 17th century gabled houses line the canals. The historic centre offers a host of museums and galleries. Overnight in Amsterdam.

Day 7: Amsterdam – London (approximately 6 hours)

Leave Amsterdam and depart to your final stop - London. The day is at leisure to enjoy. Overnight in London.

Days 8 - 10: London

Few cities offer such vast cultural diversity, reflected in the enormous range of entertainment and activities. Samuel Johnson's comment that 'when a man is tired of London, he is tired of life; for there is in London all that life can afford' is as true now as it was some 250 years ago. Overnight in London.

Please note: Durations are based on approximate timings, which may vary over weekdays and weekends, the number of stops and climate conditions.

Munich

The charming city

Marienplatz

Oktoberfest gingerbread hearts

Bavaria’s charming capital happily combines the high culture of opera, art and museums with the simpler pleasures of oompah bands, beer halls and the Oktoberfest, a celebratory cornucopia of food, drink and conviviality. Situated just north of the Alps, Munich conveniently lies at the crossroads of Europe bordering Switzerland, Austria and Italy.

Places of interest: The BMW Museum, with its collection of vintage cars; the beautiful English Garden, with shaded paths, ponds, swans and beer gardens; fairy tale Neuschwanstein Castle can be reached via scenic drives through pastoral and mountain scenery; and quaint towns such as Oberammergau.

For the family: Take a train to Germany’s highest mountain, the 2,962-metre Zugspitze, for spectacular views of Lake Tegernsee; Legoland, between Munich and Stuttgart, has more than 40 rides and attractions.

Best buys: Maximilianstrasse is a boulevard of stylish boutiques and chic shops; the pedestrian zone near Marienplatz retains much of its old character and is the place to find souvenirs.

Out and about: Hofbräuhaus, the famous brewery; Schwabing offers a mix of bars, discothèques and trendy cafés and boat rides on Lake Chiemsee.

Sporting attractions: Garmisch-Partenkirchen for winter sports, summer hiking, mountain climbing and magnificent Alpine views as well as the spa town of Bad Reichenhall.

Neuschwanstein Castle

Neuschwanstein Castle and Linderhof Palace

Full-day coach excursion from Munich

Our excursion begins high in the Bavarian hills where the eccentric King Ludwig II built two extraordinary castles that are amongst the most romantic sights in all of Germany.

Neuschwanstein is an idealised mediaeval castle, built to plans made by a theatre set designer rather than an architect and is situated on a rocky promontory above a steep gorge overlooking the lake far below.

In contrast, the rococo Linderhof Palace is modelled along the lines of the great French palace at Versailles, although on a much smaller scale.

We then head to the village of Oberammergau for a short shopping break. 400 years ago the villagers, seeking deliverance from the plague, promised that they would perform the Passion Play every 10 years. They have done so, with only two exceptions, since 1634.

This is a coach excursion, which commences and ends at Le Méridien Munich. It operates daily from April to October and daily except Mondays from November to March. The excursion includes entrance fees and an English-speaking guide.

Frankfurt

The German metropolis

Frankfurt, standing on the banks of the River Main, is an important banking, commercial and transportation hub and is Europe's prime financial centre. The spectacular high-rise skyline has given the city its nickname "Mainhattan", amidst which glimpses of its mediaeval roots can still be seen in cobbled alleyways and quaint squares. Frankfurt is home to many museums, theatres including first-class "English Theatre" and a world-class opera.

Places of interest: Römerberg, the main square and historical centre of the city; Kaiserdom, the towering cathedral where holy Roman emperors were crowned; the beautiful spa towns of Wiesbaden and Baden Baden are both easily accessible.

Best buys: The pedestrian street, Zeil, is lined with well-known department stores; Schweizer Strasse in Sachsenhausen and Goethestrasse are known for exclusive designer clothing and jewellery boutiques; Oeder Weg and Berger Strasse offer bargain and curio shops.

Out and about: Traditional bars cluster around the Alt Sachsenhausen district; discothèques and clubs can be found around Zeil and Bleichstrasse; jazz bars are particularly popular – the best venues are around Kleine Bockenheimer Strasse, otherwise known as Jazzgasse.

Rhine Valley

On this unforgettable day trip you can see the Rhine River winding its way through the Taunus hills, its gorges lined by ancient villages, white-washed houses covered with wisteria and lacy iron balconies, needle-sharp church spires, historic palaces, forbidding mediaeval castles perched on top of vertical crags and terraced rows of vines. Due to its stunning beauty, the Rhine Valley is an immensely popular holiday destination. Castles, cathedrals, woods and vineyards, hiking trails and a romantic river bed, all contribute to the scenery, which has inspired numerous poets and painters.

At Rüdesheim you will enjoy stupendous views from the Niederwald Monument, an enormous bronze statue of Germania erected by Kaiser Wilhelm in 1883 towering over 37 metres above the hilltop before descending (by the optional cable car if you wish) to the valley for lunch at a riverside restaurant.

In the afternoon, you board your Rhine steamer for a cruise along one of the most spectacular stretches of the river to St Goarshausen. En route you will see the Loreley Rock, a 130-metre high outcrop overlooking the notorious Bingener Hole, where the mighty river narrows to just 115 metres.

We recommend that you do this as a full-day excursion with a rental car. In the winter months, when steamers do not operate, you may want to visit a castle instead.

Fantastic adventures in Germany's biggest theme park

Just a two-hour drive from Frankfurt and close to the borders of Germany, France and Switzerland, is a world of adventure and excitement, where more than 100 attractions, rides and shows offer fun for the whole family.

Europa Park, covering 85 hectares, is Germany's largest theme park. Here visitors can ride the Atlantica SuperSplash water coaster, which marks the start of the park's most recent 'country area', Portugal; enjoy the thrill of the Pirates in Batavia; marvel at the skill of the Gladiators in the Spanish area; explore the depths of the ocean and life in the jungle at the fantastic 4-D cinema; or experience the 130 kilometre-per-hour and 73-metre high Silver Star – Europe's tallest and biggest steel roller coaster. The latest addition to the park is the 'Blue Fire Megacoaster' – enjoy the ride! And with 13 European nations represented, guests can explore the culture, architecture and food of countries from Scandinavia's North Cape to the Mediterranean, from the Atlantic seaboard to the Russian steppes. Additionally, more than 140 artists from more than 20 countries perform throughout the park.

The park frequently adds new attractions and also offers excellent dining and accommodation in its four unique themed hotels – Colosseo, the largest Italian hotel outside Italy, the Spanish resort hotels – El Andaluz & Castillo Alcazar and Santa Isabel – the newest hotel in the park built in the style of a Portuguese monastery.

Hotel Colosseo

Hamburg city tour

Full-day coach excursion with harbour cruise

This captivating excursion which begins with a drive through Hamburg is the ideal way to explore Germany's second-largest and perhaps most beautiful city. An important and prosperous port city for over a millennium, Hamburg offers a wealth of history to explore.

Tour highlights include the Alster, a large lake at the heart of the city; the Altstadt (Old City); the baroque Michel St Michaelis Church, dating from 1751, featuring the biggest church clock in the country; and the St Pauli district, long renowned for its risqué nightlife centred around the Reeperbahn, but now also home to a busy alternative cultural scene, thriving musical theatres and trendy bars.

The excursion also includes an hour-long harbour cruise that reveals both historic and modern aspects of the city. Accompanied by an English-speaking guide, visitors will get acquainted with old Hamburg from where about five million people emigrated to the New World between 1850 and 1939 as well as 21st century Hamburg, which welcomes nearly 13,000 seagoing vessels every year from all over the world as Europe's second biggest port.

This is a full-day coach excursion with harbour cruise which starts and ends at the Hamburg main train station (Hauptbahnhof). It operates daily from 9.00am to 4.00pm, includes a cruise and an English-speaking guide.

Palace of Sanssouci

Potsdam-Sanssouci

Half-day private chauffeur-driven excursion

Potsdam's main attractions, its palaces and parks, bear witness to the days when the town was a summer residence of the Prussian kings. Sanssouci Palace and Park, built by Prussia's greatest monarch, King Frederick II, is the crowning glory of this magnificent collection. The Rococo Palace became Frederick's favourite refuge, where he entertained some of the most educated men of his time, among them the French poet Voltaire who was a frequent guest over many years.

Chinese Tea House, Sanssouci Park

Our excursion takes you on an extensive tour of Sanssouci Palace with a stroll through the magnificent gardens.

This excursion will also introduce you to the delightful town of Potsdam, once the centre of Prussia and now the Brandenburg State capital. Potsdam was historically a centre of European immigration. Its religious tolerance attracted people from France, Russia, the Netherlands and Bohemia. This is still visible in the culture and architecture of the city.

Today, the town's reputation as a lively centre of culture and learning is enhanced by the fascinating architecture of its historical districts – the Dutch quarter, the Russian colony of Alexandrovka and the exclusive residential area of Babelsberg and the many events staged in Potsdam's palaces.

This is a private chauffeur-driven car excursion which includes pick-up and drop-off at your hotel, entrance fee and English-speaking guide. The excursion operates daily except for Mondays.
