Abu Dhabi

United Arab Emirates

Where old meets new

The United Arab Emirates (UAE) is a young country, with a rich heritage and a modern cosmopolitan culture perfectly combining the best of the new world with the warmth of traditional Arabian hospitality.

Formed in 1971 from seven formerly independent states situated from west to east - Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain, Ras Al Khaimah and Fujairah.

Originally a small fishing settlement, traditional activities included herding sheep and goats, cultivating dates, fishing and pearling, and from these industries the local inhabitants built up trade.

It was the discovery of oil in 1966 that was to transform the UAE and its way of life. The years since their unification have seen remarkable progress. There are now modern highways, new hospitals and universities, and fine cities. The pace of change has been staggering but the people have adapted, adopted and improved upon the new influences. A tolerant and welcoming society, and a virtually crime free environment contribute to the popularity of the destination.

Easily accessible, year-round sunshine, with indoor activities in the summer and great outdoor activities in the cooler months, the UAE boasts excellent beaches and resorts. Not forgetting the endless array of shopping malls, the UAE is indeed an excellent family friendly destination.

It is a city of contrasts, a land where the old and the new, traditional and modern, east and west blend seamlessly to produce a fascinating, mysterious and exciting place with a distinct personality all of its own.

Fujairah

Climate, Health Check & Visa

Straddling the Tropic of Cancer, the UAE has a subtropical, arid climate and enjoys cloudless sunny blue skies most of the year. It is cool and pleasant in winter, while the humidity is high during the summer months. Local north-westerly winds (shamal) frequently develop during the winter months, bringing cooler weather. The little rainfall the UAE has usually occurs between December and March.

No health certificate or special immunisations are required to enter the UAE. However it is recommended that you check before departure if you are travelling from a health-risk area. As it is a desert environment, adequate sun protection including good quality sunglasses, hats and high factor sun creams are advised. Medical facilities are up-to-date and the hospitals are well-equipped. Pharmacies are well stocked and some are open 24-hours a day. Most hotels have doctors on call. Emirates Holidays recommends adequate medical insurance to cover all eventualities, especially if you need to attend a private hospital or clinic where treatment can be expensive.

Visas are not required for the following nationalities: Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brunei, Denmark, Finland, France, GCC countries, Germany, Greece, Hong Kong, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Monaco, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, San Marino, Singapore, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, The Netherlands, United Kingdom, United States of America and Vatican City. The indicative price per visa is approximately US$ 85 and processing time is approximately seven days. Visa regulations are subject to change from time to time.

Fujairah

Abu Dhabi, Fujairah & the East Coast

The UAE is a constitutional federation of seven emirates including Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah, Ajman, Umm Al Quwain, Ras Al Khaimah and Fujairah.

The largest of the seven emirates and the capital of the UAE, Abu Dhabi is a beautiful modern city with wide tree-lined boulevards, a skyline of tall, glass towered buildings and busy shops. Abu Dhabi is known for its greenery and has a number of ongoing conservation projects. The Abu Dhabi corniche offers many kilometres of pathways for walking, cycling, jogging and roller-blading.

Al Ain, UAE's largest inland city and a part of the Abu Dhabi emirate is often known as the 'Garden City of the Gulf' because of its numerous parks and gardens. The atmosphere and culture is more traditionally Arabic and it is a frequent destination for its ancient archaeological sites and the hot springs at Jebel Hafeet.

Situated in the shadow of the breathtaking Hajar Mountains is the emirate of Fujairah. It is surrounded by the scenic mountains to one side and the vast expanse of the deep blue sea on the other. Fujairah has many places of interest and is a charming city with its gardens of date palms and its scenic coastline. The warm crystal waters of the Indian Ocean are ideal for diving and fishing. For the more adventurous, off-road driving through mountains and boulder-strewn wadis provides landscapes unrivalled across the UAE.

Further north and part of Fujairah, is the charming village of Bidiyah with its ancient watchtower and the unique four-domed Bidiyah mosque, the smallest and oldest in the UAE. At the northern-most end of Fujairah is the picturesque village of Dibba with its beautiful bay, traditional fishing communities and tranquil environment.

Situated along the east coast is the resort town of Khor Fakkan, part of the emirate of Sharjah. Its elegant villas and wide boulevards give it a unique Mediterranean feel.

Emirates Eye - Sharjah

Ras Al Khaimah Fort

Ras Al Khaimah, Sharjah & the Northern Emirates

The northern-most emirate on the UAE's west coast is Ras Al Khaimah nestled between the Hajar Mountains on the east and the sea on the west. Ras Al Khaimah has fascinating tourist landmarks and the important centres include a museum, an agricultural centre, a palace, souks, farms, natural springs and an attractive valley in the southern mountains.

Sharjah, the third largest emirate in the UAE is just 15 kilometres from Dubai. The most conservative among all the emirates, it is known as the Cultural Capital of the UAE and houses the largest Arts Museum in the region and boasts of a large number of cultural and traditional projects, including several museums. This is the only emirate to have a coastline on both the east and west coast of the UAE. Al Dhaid known as the fruit bowl of the UAE is part of the emirate of Sharjah.

Ajman, located a short distance northeast of Sharjah is the smallest emirate with a fascinating new museum at its centre, developed from a former historic fort. Bargain hunters can visit the Ajman souk renowned for its architectural splendour and the Iranian souk for domestic goods and some interesting pottery. Ajman is situated along a natural creek and is the antithesis of the bustle and energy of Dubai. The traditional way of Arab living is well preserved here, providing a pleasant blend of the old and new.

The emirate of Umm Al Quwain is located on the UAE coast and is home to the preserved remains of an old fort. It is fast developing into a major leisure and sporting destination in the UAE. The emirate also offers long unspoilt beaches and an enclosed lagoon. Key attractions include historical sites, ancient forts and a natural reserve.

Cruises

Cruises

Voyage of discovery

Our cruises are the ultimate in holidays – absolutely no other vacation offers such variety. Just being aboard your floating hotel is a unique experience. Our selected cruise liners have superb sports and entertainment facilities, outstanding restaurants and crew dedicated to ensuring that every aspect of your voyage is thoroughly enjoyable. Add to this the excitement of exploring various ports of call, the stimulating social life and the opportunity to make new friends and it's easy to see why a cruise is a holiday like no other.

Join our Costa Luminosa or the Costa Deliziosa to sail the waters of the Arabian Sea departing from Dubai and touching at Abu Dhabi, Fujairah, Muscat and Bahrain.

A few hints and tips

Visas and travel documents: You must carry all travel documents (such as passports and visas) required for all ports of call. We recommend that your passport expiry date is not less than six months after the voyage termination date. We regret that no refunds will be given if incorrect travel documents affect any part of the cruise.

Children: Children have fun on a shipboard life, specially-trained staff offer daily activity programmes for toddlers, children and teens. From the moment they step on-board, children will have the time of their lives – ensuring that you can enjoy yours! There are also plenty of family activities, including sports, games, entertainment and exciting excursions.

Cabins: Details of our selected cabins are featured in the brochure, but we can also book other categories for you, including interconnecting and larger cabins suitable for families.

Clothing: Days on board are casual – all you need is sports or resort wear. Low-heeled shoes are best for deck activities and walking shoes for shore excursions. Evening wear depends on the occasion. Casual evenings require a sundress or slacks and blouse for ladies and a sports shirt and trousers for men. For smarter occasions, a dress, or trouser suit for women and jacket for men are recommended. For formal events, a cocktail dress for ladies and suit and tie, or tuxedo for men is customary. National dress is also allowed for these occasions.

Baggage: All baggage must fit in the cabins – there is no provision for storage in the ship's hold. We recommend using bags with wheels as you may have a long walk to your cabin and there is limited or no porter service available.

Activities: There is a daily programme of activities running from early morning until late evening, typically including exercise classes, sports activities, deck games, educational classes and dance demonstrations.

Dining: Cruise ships are famous for great food. Each ship has at least one casual and one formal dining option, with individual seating arrangements. Whilst we cannot guarantee any seating request, please let us know your preference when you book.

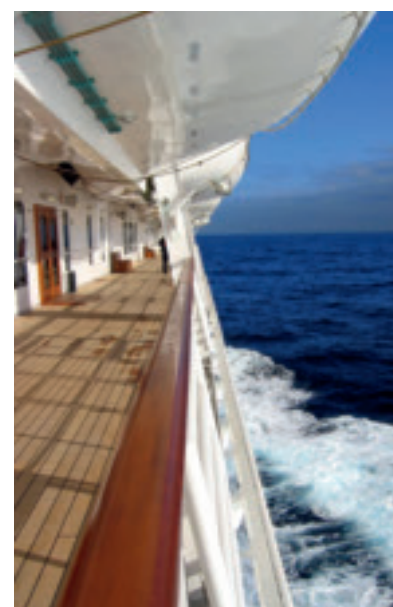

Shore excursions: With ancient monuments, great cities and towns, gorgeous beaches, excellent shopping and every activity from snorkelling to horse riding – there's a shore excursion for every interest.

Sports and leisure: It's easy to stay in shape aboard, you can go jogging on deck, swim in the pool, use the fitness centre or join the aerobics classes. For a leisurely start to the day try a massage, facial, manicure or pedicure in the spa.

Entertainment: Meet new friends, watch a comedian or a Broadway-style show, dance the night away, simply watch a film in your cabin or laze on the deck gazing at the stars.

Medical matters: A physician and nurse are available 24 hours a day, their services being subject to a fee. Please carry any medication you require with you.

Tipping: Tipping is customary on most ships – guidelines will be given on board. A suggested charge per passenger for dining and stateroom personnel will be automatically added to your shipboard account. Should you wish to make any adjustments please contact the purser's desk.

(b) By the Client

(i) If the Client wishes to change his/her booking, the Company will endeavour to accommodate these changes. In view of the additional work involved the Company reserves the right to make a charge of

USD 50 each time a change or amendment is made to a confirmed booking at the Client's request. Any alterations to a confirmed booking requested less than two weeks before departure will be treated as a cancellation of the Client's original booking and cancellation charges as detailed in paragraph 7 (b)(ii) below will apply. Any new arrangements will be regarded as an entirely new booking. All requests for alterations must be made or confirmed in writing.

(ii) Should a Client be forced to cancel a booking the Client must give the Company written notice signed by the Client. Cancellation will take effect on the date of receipt by the Company of such written notice. The client will be liable for cancellation charges in accordance with the scale set out at the end of this page which reflects third party cancellation charges levied on the Company in connection with the cancelled booking. The Client's attention is drawn to the Insurance cover available from the Company to protect against such risks. Refunds will not be made for services not used by the Client except in accordance with the above provisions where notice of cancellation of a booking is received by the Company.

8. The Company's responsibility and conditions of carriage

(a) General

(i) The Company does not accept, and hereby excludes all liability for the acts or omissions whether negligent or otherwise of airlines, coach operators, hoteliers or any person providing goods or services in connection with any booking, unless such person is either employed by it and acting within the scope of his/her employment or is its agent under its control.

(ii) The Company accepts no liability for any loss or damage caused by events beyond its control.

(iii) Where properties are not featured within the Company's brochures, the Company will not be liable for any claims that such properties booked by the Client's express request do not satisfy the Client's expectations.

(b) Third Party Conditions

(i) The Company is not itself a provider of accommodation, ground services or tours nor does it control the third parties who provide such services in connection with the Client's holiday.

(ii) All bookings are accepted and all arrangements are made by the Company subject to (A) any and all conditions imposed from time to time by airlines and sea, rail, and road carriers, car rental companies, providers of accommodation, catering and other services or other facilities connected with a booking and such conditions will apply to the Client as if they were incorporated into these Conditions and (B) any law, direction or order imposed from time to time by any competent authority.

(iii) Some of the Third Party Conditions referred to above seek to exclude or limit the liability of the third party concerned: for instance, the liability of airlines for personal injury (including death) or loss or damage to property and baggage is usually limited by conditions contained within the airline's ticket and Conditions of Carriage (and/or by operation of law).

(c) Carriage by air by the Company

The terms, conditions and provisions in (or referred to in) the Company's ticket shall apply in respect of carriage of a Client by the Company.

9. Complaints/Refunds

If the Client has a complaint/refund query about any aspect of his/her holiday it should be reported immediately to the Company's local representative in the resort who will do whatever he/she can do during the holiday. If the problem is not resolved to the Client's satisfaction any further complaint/refund query should be made by the Client in writing to Customer Affairs and Service Audit, Emirates, P.O. Box 686, Dubai, United Arab Emirates not later than 30 days following completion of the holiday, failing which no claim may be brought against the Company. There will be no refund on unutilised services.

HolidayGuard - Travel Insurance

Emirates Holidays recommends adequate travel insurance cover to all persons booking the travel arrangements advertised in this section (not available to residents of USA and Canada). For your convenience we offer an appropriate policy, displayed in the grid. This policy is available at all Emirates and Emirates Holidays Sales Offices, except in USA and Canada, and should be purchased at the time of booking to ensure that you have cover for cancellation charges (Section 4) which becomes effective as soon as you have paid the premium. Because you have immediate cover under Section 4, the premium is not refundable if you subsequently cancel your booking. All prices quoted are in US Dollars.

Travel Insurance - Questions answered

What is Travel Insurance?

It is a comprehensive insurance package, which enables you and your family to travel with peace of mind especially designed for holidays or business trips where normal clerical work only is undertaken.

How does the Certificate of Insurance operate?

Your travel insurance certificate is a contract between you and us. We will pay for any claim you make which is covered by this insurance that happens during the period of cover. The cover for cancellation (Section 4) starts from the date you buy the cover and ends at the start of your journey. The cover for all other sections starts at the beginning of your journey and finishes at the end of your journey.

Is the Travel Insurance Brochure my Certificate of Insurance?

Ves! Once a Premium Receipt or a computer generated certificate has been issued by your Emirates or Emirates Holidays Office and attached to the brochure, this becomes your Certificate of Insurance and is all you need to take with you on holiday as proof of cover.

What happens in the case of an Emergency?

24-hour emergency service is provided by Global Response, who provide immediate help if you suffer from injury or illness outside your country of residence. They must be notified immediately if you are admitted to hospital or if you think you may have to return early or extend your stay because of injury or illness. Global Response are responsible for all decisions on the most suitable way to resolve any problem including, where necessary, your repatriation to your Country of Residence.

What are Conditions, Exclusions and Excesses?

Conditions and exclusions are circumstances where your insurance coverage may be subject to limitations or may not apply. Conditions and exclusions may apply to individual sections of your coverage or may apply to the whole of your coverage. Excesses apply to some sections of your cover (Sections 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 11, 12 and 13). Where the excess applies, we will deduct the amount of the excess (USD 50) from the final claim payment for each person insured, for each incident and for each claim made. Full details are shown in the brochure (insurance certificate) available at your Emirates or Emirates Holidays Office.

What if I need to make a Claim?

If you need to make a Claim you should apply for a Claim Form from your nearest Ketteridge Claims office (Middle East or Europe - see certificate for details) or from your nearest Emirates Holidays Office. The Claim Form should be completed and returned with full supporting documents to the nearest Ketteridge Claims office.

What happens if my return journey is delayed?

If you, or anyone travelling with you, cannot finish their journey because of death, illness or injury, or there is a delay to the public transport system that cannot be avoided, we will extend your cover free of charge until you can reasonably finish your journey.

How do I apply for cover?

Simply collect the application form from your nearest Emirates or Emirates Holidays office, complete the form, and return it with the appropriate premium.
